ARTICLE 29
ACADEMIC CALENDARS

The academic calendar for each campus shall be developed at the sole discretion of the University. An academic year normally shall not contain fewer than 146 days of instruction. This provision shall not preclude the establishment of an academic calendar containing fewer than 146 days of instruction. The University agrees, upon request, to meet with the UC-AFT to discuss any changes in the number of days of instruction. However, if the University proposes to increase the number of days of instruction to more than 150 days, the University agrees to meet and confer with the UC-AFT regarding the impact of such an increase. Negotiations regarding the impact shall not delay the implementation of the calendar.
