

UC-AFT LOCAL 1990 UCLA

STANDING RULES

STANDING RULE #1

DEPARTMENT REPRESENTATIVES

Whenever possible, academic departments in which members of a bargaining unit teach should have department representatives. Department representatives shall be responsible for welcoming new bargaining unit members to their departments, discussing workplace issues with their colleagues, sharing union-related information with others in their department, and communicating with the Executive Committee and Local field representatives about issues and conditions in their department.